The screenshot shows the Microsoft website's 'Testing Tools for Web Developers' section. The header includes navigation links: 'modern.IE', 'Get Tools', 'Read Articles', 'See Demos', and 'Meet Developers'. Social media icons for Twitter, Facebook, and Microsoft are also present. The main content area features two primary tool cards: 'Test your site on IE6-11 using free virtual machines for Windows, Mac and Linux' and 'Test your site on browsers hosted by BrowserStack free for three months'. Below these is a search bar with the text 'Run a compatibility scan on any URL' and buttons for 'Scan Now' and 'Download offline version'. The 'Resources' section includes a large blue card celebrating '1,000,000 One Million Development Hours Saved and Counting', a card for 'Test on browsers hosted by BrowserStack' offering '3 months free browser testing using cloud service', and a green card for 'Performance with the F12 Dev tools'. At the bottom, there are two more tool cards: 'Download free virtual machines' and another card with a download icon.
